DECCAN Chronicle

No quarter will be given today

T.N. RAGHU
CHENNAI, DEC. 27

The focus of the 65th senior national volleyball championship here had been on Group 'B' in the men's section because the pool comprised Andhra Pradesh, Kerala and Tamil Nadu. Although all the three southern sides have qualified for the quarter-finals, they will have to contend with teams from Group 'A' for the limelight — from Wednesday. No team will garner more attention than Railways, Group 'A' winners and two-time defending champions.

Railways coach M. Abdo Baker was guarded about his team's hot streak thus-far. "Our blockers are a bit tall. That's a concern. But I'm confident that we can extend our winning streak because attacker Prabagaran and setter Kapil Dev are in excellent form," he said.

Prabagaran is the best player in the country by some distance. He has the never-say-die spirit to match his undoubted talent. The Black Pearl of Indian volleyball flourishes under pressure, which is an impossible proposition for knock-out rounds. Kapil, an Arjuna awardee, is a master craftsman. He has the knack to transform a decent player into a great one with his judicious setting. Even in the twilight of his career, Kapil remains a class apart.

Railways will face Andhra Pradesh, who edged out Delhi in an absorbing five-setter on Tuesday. AP coach and former India player M. Thulasi Reddy said the pressure would be on Railways. "We have nothing to lose because they are the better side. I would say it's 60-40 in favour of Railways. My players will go for the jugular tomorrow," he said.

Kerala, Group 'B' winners, will face Himachal Pradesh in the quarterfinal after the kill state entered the knock-round for the first time by beating Uttar Pradesh 25-23, 25-22, 19-25, 25-21 on Tuesday. Kerala coach Abdul Nazer E was anxious about his team's chances. "We will have no problem against AP. My thoughts are already in the semi-final where we may meet Tamil Nadu again," he said.

Tamil Nadu coach P. Sundaram said Rajasthan would be the tougher opponents for his side. "The availability of all-rounder Mandeep Singh has strengthened Rajasthan. He got an NOC to play for us. Earlier, since after Uttarakhand, where he is employed, didn't send a team. Another Dilip Khoswal, and Lovneet Kaur are ace players, too. We can't take chances," he added.

It has been a strange tournament for Tamil Nadu. Their talisman M. Naveen Raja Jacob is far below his usual respectable form. Much to the relief of Sundaram, however, the youthful trio of all-rounder K. Praveen Kumar, setter N. Gokulnath and attacker T. Sathiyan are playing like tested veterans. Praveen was outstanding in a five-set loss at the hands of Kerala on Monday.

Sundaram acknowledged Naveen's dip in form. "As a team, we have to accept the reality and move on. Naveen is still a crucial player for us because of his excellent reception. Praveen and Sathiyan, the future of Tamil Nadu volleyball, need to be on top of their game to help us progress. I'm thrilled with the performance of Gokul who has been on the bad whenever I put him on for Tiruvananthapuram. It's hard to believe that this is his maiden nationals," he said.

T. Sathiyan of Tamil Nadu is poised for a smash against Kerala. The youngster has become a key player for Tamil Nadu in the wake of M. Naveen Raja Jacob's poor form.

ACTION TODAY

QF: Men: Andhra Pradesh vs Railways (12 noon); Punjab vs Services (2 pm); Kerala vs Himachal Pradesh (4 pm); Rajasthan vs Tamil Nadu (6 pm).

Women: Railways vs UP (12 noon); AP vs Telangana (2 pm); Maharashtra vs Tamil Nadu (4 pm); Kerala vs West Bengal (6 pm).

An edge-of-the-seat thriller

Nipun Dogar of Delhi tries to pierce AP's double block in the pre-quarterfinal.

ELAVARASAN. S
CHENNAI, DEC. 27

If it was Kerala vs Tamil Nadu on Monday, it was the turn of Andhra Pradesh and Delhi on Tuesday to serve up a treat to fans in the 65th senior national volleyball championship here. Andhra Pradesh prevailed 23-25, 25-20, 25-23, 20-25, 22-20 in a nail-biting finish to book a meeting with Railways in the quarter-final.

The decision of Delhi coach Jaspal Singh Dhillon to rest his top-two players was a gamble. But sport wouldn't be sport if everything was always impossible. Undaunted by the daunting task in front of them, AP rallied brilliantly on K. Rajesh's serves to make it 14-14.

Now the momentum was with the southern state. B. Malarkodi, AP's best player in the tournament, put his team on the brink of a win at 19-17. He, then, would have good work with a weak serve that failed to reach the other side. The nine points match was as good as gone for AP because a four-point gap in the crucial stage is usually unbridgeable
