Tamil Nadu triumph after five-set struggle

Chennai: For the second time in as many days, hosts Tamil Nadu had to go through the grind of a five-set match, but they ended up on the winning side this time around. After their loss to Services in opening tie on Saturday, the nine-time champions got their campaign back on track as they beat Andhra Pradesh 19-25, 22-25, 25-22, 25-18, 15-13 at the Nehru Indoor Stadium here on Sunday.

NAT'L VOLLEYBALL

The TN players looked cagey in initial stages yet again, with the seniors struggling to find their groove. Andhra Pradesh, on the other hand, were on the money right from the outset and ready to pounce on any opening they got. It came as little surprise then that the visitors raced to a 25-19 victory in the opening set. In the second set, AP raced to a 7-2 lead in quick time and it seemed like there was no way back for the home side. However, an injury to Andhra player P. Prasanth while trying to retrieve a ball that had gone out of court led to a break in play and halted their momentum. On resumption, TN seemed to gather some composure and won four points in a row to make it 6-7. It was all too brief for their liking, though, as Andhra regained the upper hand to eventually close the set 25-22.

Much like their game against Services on Saturday, it was only after they went 0-2 down that TN started showing why they were being considered among one of the favourites coming into the tournament. The exuberance of youngsters T. Sathiyaran and N. Gokulnath, who weren't included from the start once again, came to the fore as they made it 2-2 to take the game in to the fifth set. Sathiyaran, in particular, was lethal in attack and did not let go of any opportunity that came his way.

In the deciding fifth set, it was neck and neck at 12-12 when a crucial umpiring call went TN's way. The ball had gone out of court after a smash from a TN player, but the referee ruled the point in the home side's favour thinking that the ball had touched one of the Andhra players when it clearly hadn't. It proved to be a decisive moment in the match as TN went on to win the fifth set 15-13 to notch up a come-from-behind victory. Andhra coach M. Thulasi Reddy was understandably frustrated after the match and felt the referee might have been trying to make up for an earlier decision which had wrongly gone against TN.

"It was a very important moment in the match. I understand that referees are also human beings and are prone to mistakes, but I just felt he was trying to balance out the wrong calls. If that point had gone in our favour, it could have been a different story," he said.

IOB shoots down players' plea

► From P1

Naveen, who works at IOB's Gemini Circle branch, said: "Before demonetization, I would only have to work till 1.30 or 2 pm. In the evenings, we could focus entirely on our game. Now, I have to be at the office till 8pm. I was never used to such a schedule and that has taken a toll."

The player even requested one of the senior bank officials to allow more time for practice, but it was shot down. "The officer turned it down, saying that all the employees will have to cooperate and help out at this difficult time," Naveen added. His colleague and teammate, Vaishnav, too echoed similar sentiments. "We are just not getting enough practice. It has been made compulsory for everybody to work late in office and it's taking a toll on our practice schedule," Vaishnav said.

In the two games that TN have played so far in the tournament, it has been noticeable how the senior players have struggled to get going. The fringe players, on the other hand, who are not associated with any bank, seem a lot sharper and have made the difference.

"We have been preparing for this tournament since December 8. Ideally, all the players would have been training regularly by the time we came together for this tournament but that wasn't to be," added Sundaram, who has been TN's coach for the last four years.

Tamil Nadu men roar back

VOLLEYBALL / The host rallies from two sets down to beat AP

S. PRASANNA VENKATESAN

CHENNAI: Host Tamil Nadu beat Andhra Pradesh 19-25, 22-25, 25-22, 25-18, 15-13 in a Group-B match on day two of the senior National volleyball championship at the Nehru indoor stadium here on Sunday.

After it lost the first set, and let Andhra Pradesh take the lead early on in the second as well, Tamil Nadu, desperate not to lose, held on, and narrowed the gap from 4-7 to 6-7.

But Andhra shrugged off the surge, and advanced to 10-7, R. Rajasekar spiking successfully twice in the three points it won.

It laid claim to three more points from there, with Tamil Nadu stranded on seven - P. Prasanth blocked Tamil Nadu captain S. Karthik's drive for the first point. Rajasekar's serve tripped off the top of the net, deceiving the opposition, for the second, and R. Krishnam Raju blocked again for the third.

At this point, it was fairly evident that the Andhra Pradesh blockers P. Prasanth, Krishnam Raju, and P. Ameer Khan were in fine form.

Tamil Nadu rallied to 12-15 from there, but there was no getting close, let alone getting past Andhra as it went ahead to 20-16. A combined block by Prasanth and T. Naresh - they kept up, close to each other -

Jacob was a highlight of the phase. The longest rally of the set, when Andhra was 20-19 up, ended in Tamil Nadu's favour, courtesy a Naveen Raja spike. There were two striking plays in the rally - Tamil Nadu's D. Selva Prabha swiftly went to the ground to dig a Krishnam Raju spike, and Andhra's V. Murali Mohan dived in reflex to dig Naveen Raja's spike one-handed.

Tamil Nadu got lucky when it was down 21-23 as Andhra's Ameer Khan hit his service out of the court. It didn't get any lucky from there as Andhra claimed the set 25-22 from thereon.

Luck again favoured Tamil Nadu as it snuck in the third set...

when the score was 6-11, from 3-11, as Andhra captain V. Subba Rao netted his serve, and again, when the scoreline had further been dragged to 9-11, Naresh jumped and spiked the ball out of the court. Tamil Nadu managed to take the set 25-22.

There were two moments of note in the fourth set that Tamil Nadu won 25-18. First was when Subba Rao's spike was too good for Tamil Nadu's S. Aswin, who went to the ground and rolled over in his failed attempt at a dig.

Second was when Tamil Nadu's K. Praveen Kumar, set up by Aswin, spiked the ball for it to sneak in amid three jump-line blockers - it was in the slight gap between Andhra's Prasanth and Ameer Khan on one side, and K. Rajesh on the other.

In the all-resolving fifth set, when the score was level at 12-12, Andhra's Naresh spike the ball out of the court for Tamil Nadu to go one-up.

But then, Tamil Nadu's Shelton Moses blocked Prasanth's drive soon after for it to spill out of the court as Andhra drew level 13-13. Tamil Nadu was the first to get to 15 points from there and wrap the match up.

Andhra Pradesh coach M. Thulasi Reddy said it hurt to lose the match from two sets up. "It does hurt to lose like this, but then, we have an inexperienced side and our plan has been to go all out and play aggressively all the time irrespective of the situation. That, I believe, is the only way we can win," he said.
