Kerala spikers upset Railways to emerge champions

ENS @Chennai

It was mixed fortunes for Kerala as their men's team trounced defending champion Indian Railways in a marathon five-setter 25-17, 20-25, 26-24, 25-27, 15-9. But the women's team lost to Indian Railways, who won 25-21, 21-25, 25-15, 25-21 for the ninth time in a row on the final day of the 65th Senior national volleyball championships held at the JN indoor stadium.

Chennai has a huge presence of Keralites and they came in large numbers to cheer their state teams. Once the men's team won the fifth set convincingly the entire crowd barged into the court to celebrate with their players. In the decider, Kerala men had a five point lead and never looked back. Vbhin and Rohit's blocks and Akhin's serves sealed the fate of Railways. Ragesh, who was error prone and failed to get any of his serves right in the previous sets, got his rhythm in the final. "We fought throughout the game well. Even the sets we lost, the margin was close. In the decider we went flat out, the 5-point lead helped up to swing the momentum in our favour. All the boys improved their game in turns and this helped get the confidence and have a crack at the title," said Abdul Nazer, chief coach of Kerala.

But Railway assistant coach Gurjot Singh said the turning point was the third set. "In the final, the third set is always important and we lost that. When we had a two-point lead towards the end of the third set we should have upped the tempo and won the set. Plus our first pass was poor through out the game. Kerala played the big points better and our boys succumbed to pressure," said Gurjot Singh.

Other results: Men: 3rd place: Tamil Nadu bt Punjab 20-25, 25-20, 34-32, 25-21.
Women: 3rd place: Maharashtra bt AP 25-15, 25-17, 25-9.

CHENNAI: Kerala beat Railways 25-17, 20-25, 26-24, 25-27, 15-9 to emerge the men's champion of the senior National volleyball championship at the Nehru indoor stadium here on Friday.

It was Kerala's sixth National title. Railways's attempt at a three-peat thus stood foiled.

Railways women won their ninth consecutive title with a 25-21, 21-25, 25-15, 25-21 win over Kerala.

Kerala had a superior blocking game, and Railways, especially at times when it was ahead with Kerala close on its heels, relied heavy on forceful play than fanciful.

At 22-20 in the second set, Manu Joseph's swat of a spike proved too good to dig out for U. Abdul Raheem who went down in a flash for it.

Manu, again for the next point, banged it across at open space, the ball too quick for anyone to even try to dig it out.

The third set resembled a never-ending tug-of-war with both teams pulling at each other, all determined and miser-tight. It was 6-6 at one point, 13-13 at another, and 24-24 before Kerala clinched it 26-24.

The fourth set was intense, too, as Railways pulled off from 25-all to win it 27-25.

Players on either side slid, stretched and fell in the long rally when Kerala was up 25-24, which C. Ajithlal ended in Kerala's favour with a spike.

The women's match was also close-fought as the margins of win in three of the four sets — rather than the overall score — will indicate.

The Kerala women did ply the standard tricks to try and push their odds at a title win.

There was the feign-a-bash for a gentle push, as E.P. Sanisha did for Kerala to go 4-3 up in the first set — the ball dropped, close to the net, as the opponents, who had expected a full-blown spike were caught unawares.

And, the feint-a-move for target space. For instance, P.P. Reshma rushed straight at the ball, also moving her arm as if to spike straight yet placing it cross-court. It didn't help that Railways saw through all of it for the most part of play.

Railways got anxious and committed mistakes at crucial moments. It was a negligible glitch in its play though. Like, Minimol Abraham hit the ball off-court when it was looking to claim the first set at 24-19.

The results (finals):
Men: Kerala bt Railways 25-17, 20-25, 26-24, 25-27, 15-9.
Third place: Tamil Nadu bt Punjab 20-25, 25-20, 34-32, 25-21.
Women: Railways bt Kerala 25-21, 21-25, 25-15, 25-21.
Third place: Maharashtra bt Andhra Pradesh 25-15, 25-17, 25-9.

The Railways women have done it. For the ninth time

JEPPIAAR 65TH SENIOR NATIONAL VOLLEYBALL

VINITH INSPIRES KERALA TO TITLE

T.N. RAGHU
 CHENNAI, DEC. 30

C. Jerome Vinith dashed Railways' hat-trick dreams as he inspired Kerala to a 25-17, 20-25, 20-24, 25-27, 15-9 win in the final of the 65th senior national volleyball championship here on Friday. The universal, one-man demolition army throughout the tournament, came up with sensational smashes when his team needed him the most in the roller-coaster final. Earlier in the women's section, Railways defeated Kerala in four sets for their ninth title on the trot. The victory was Vinith's as much as it was Kerala's. A native of Podukottai in Tamil Nadu, the BPCL officer from Kochi, destroyed Railways' blocks from some two ruthlessly. The match between the two best teams of the tournament served up a treat to a capacity crowd, who relished every point of the gripping final.

Nothing embodied Vinith's aggressive, performance at the Nehru Stadium than the thunders, but he unleashed when his side's first pass, head zone, went awry early in the decider with the scores at 4-4. Although the ball set up by Kerala's libero Rathesh C.K. was very low, Vinith somehow managed to smash the ball past Railways' — bonused defence. A man who could improvise so well didn't deserve to be on the losing side. Kerala coach Abdul Nazeer K. achieved his mission of becoming a national champion after enduring two agonising misses in the final since 2010.

Thursday's victory must have tasted particularly sweet to him because it was Railways who had thwarted his title dreams in last year's final. A superb comeback from 16-20 in the third set was critical to Kerala's famous win. As soon as the final point was over, Nazeer put his marriage in jeopardy by hugging Vinith so passionately that one wondered whether they would come apart at all. The cathartic moment left both men speechless. In the end, Vinith and Co. helped Nazeer keep his word, as the coach had been saying right from the start that his side would be crowned champions here. "Nazeer hit the nail on the head when he said the hunger for team win. We wanted it more than anybody else in the tournament," he said. What made him extremely confident from the outset? Put came the reply from the coach "Vinith, the great player". It's difficult to lose sight of contributions from other players for Kerala's sixth title. Following Vinith's outstanding brilliance, Setter A. Muthusamy, another Tamil Nadu player in Kerala's ranks, overcame a dip in form in the second set by mastermind his team's attack expertly. He found his feeding judiciously to poster blockers blockers irrelevant in the final set. His first-man pass was brilliant towards the end.

Overall, nothing hurt Railways more than their own line blocking. Their tallness, S. Prabhakaran, was also not at his best. The most famous player on the court couldn't rise to the occasion as he had done against Tamil Nadu in the final here two years ago. Let's cut the long story short, no team deserved the title in the 65th edition of the national championship than Kerala and no player deserved the crown more than the man with the Midas touch, Vinith.

Results: Final Men Kerala 31 Railways 29-17, 20-25, 26-24, 25-27, 15-9. 3rd place Tamil Nadu 31 Punjab 20-23, 25-20, 24-32, 25-21. Women: Railways 31 Kerala 25-21, 21-25, 25-18, 25-20. 2nd place Maharashtra 31 AP 25-15, 25-17, 28-9.

 Substitutes: K. Aravin (libero, Tamil Nadu), K.J. Kapil, Dev (setter, Railways), Pralokan (attacker, Railways), Rohith P. (blocker, Kerala), Gurinder Singh (universal, Punjab) and R. Rajasekar (attacker, AP).
 Coach: Abdul Nazeer K. (Kerala).

Tamil Nadu jewels decorate Kerala crown in volleyball

T.N. RAGHU
 CHENNAI, DEC. 30

The last day of the 65th senior national volleyball championship was hit-or-miss for Tamil Nadu. The action heroes at the Nehru Stadium on Friday, C. Jerome Vinith and A. Muthusamy were born in the state and cut their volleyball teeth under the guidance of coach S. Dakshinamoorthy in the city. Unfortunately for Tamil Nadu, however, the two did the star turn for Kerala in their five-set win over Railways in the final.

Tamil Nadu's loss was Kerala's gain as Vinith and Muthusamy went to Kerala to join BPCL in Kochi after they didn't get a job to match their talent at home. Tamil Nadu must now be wondering how they let the two outstanding players slip through their fingers.

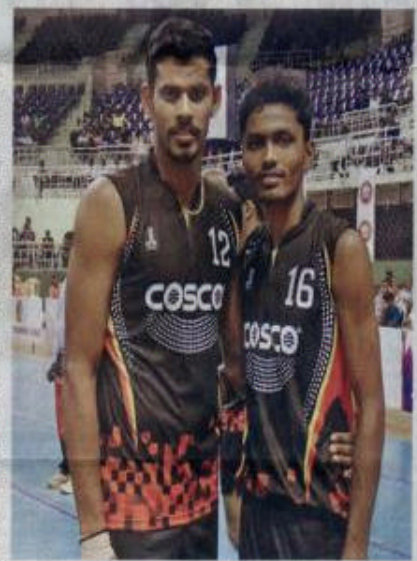

Vinith, who was born in Podukottai, was the player of the tournament as he smashed everything in front of him all week. He operated at a different level to steer Kerala to the pinnacle. The universal was the main reason for Kerala's sixth championship.

"I was determined to clinch the title this time because I had not won anything with my adopted state after I left Tamil Nadu two-and-a-half years ago. I'm thrilled with the win today," he said.

Muthusamy's role was no less important for Kerala because he had to pull the strings for the team as a setter. Even though he is only 25 years old, the setter from Edamelaipur near Tiruvellar showed maturity beyond his age in the middle. "I didn't get a chance to play for Tamil Nadu last year, although I was in the team. I wanted to prove myself this year," he said. Hence, aimed BPCL only recently, Muthusamy has settled down in his new team incredibly fast. Both Vinith and Muthusamy are grateful to their mentor, Dakshinamoorthy. The SAI coach, who is the driving force behind SRM University, said the two players would go places. "The duo don't show their feelings but they hate losing. I'm sure Vinith and Muthusamy will carve India with distinction," he added. Vinith, the country's best universal at the moment, is already a fixture in the Indian team. Muthusamy is yet to make his India debut but he has age on his side. Dakshinamoorthy paid tribute to Vinith's resilience as the all-rounder overcame a serious knee injury four years ago. The coach said Muthusamy is a thinking setter who doesn't get frustrated easily.
