Railways show no mercy to AP

ELAVARASAN, S
 CHENNAI, DEC. 28

Andhra Pradesh had escaped from the jaws of defeat in the pre-quarterfinal against Delhi but the might of Railways proved too hot for them in the next round here on Wednesday. Playing an extra match also took a toll on AP as they crashed to a 20-25, 20-25, 13-25 defeat at the hands of the defending champions.

Despite the efforts of K. Rajesh who packed power in his serves and R. Rajasekar who came up with splendid spikes time and again, AP didn't have much left in their tank against Railways. All-rounder Manu Joseph and attacker S. Prabakaran ripped AP's defence into shreds.

Last year's runners-up Kerala cantered to an even easier victory against Himachal Pradesh. Himachal were on the back foot as they had no answer to C. Jerome Vinith's blistering serves and Vibin K George's mighty attacks. The duo paved way for Kerala's semi final entry and C. Ajithlal's impeccable play all around the court helped Kerala make short work of their opponents in the third.

Punjab, 17-time champions, put out Services 34 with an authoritative performance. Services started off strongly, but they lost their way in the face of Gurinder Singh's unstoppable smashes.

The all-rounder almost tore the ball into two with his cannon ball spiking. Services universal Naveen Kumar put up some resistance but it wasn't enough to stop the Punjab juggernaut.

C. Ajithlal of Kerala is poised for a smash against Himachal Pradesh in the quarter-final on Wednesday.

We will beat Tamil Nadu: Kerala coach

T.N. RAGHU
 CHENNAI, DEC. 28

If the Kerala-Tamil Nadu semi-final in the 65th senior national volleyball championship here were to be decided on the basis of coaches' confidence, the hosts have no chance. Kerala coach Abdul Nazer K has no doubts whatsoever about the outcome at the Nehru Stadium on Thursday "I will sleep well tonight because I know we will win tomorrow," he said.

What makes Nazer supremely confident? "My blockers, Akhlin and Rohith. They are better than Tamil Nadu blockers and will make a difference in the match," he said.

And, Nazer has C. Jerome Vinith who has taken the tournament by storm with his thundering smashes from zone two. The Tamil Nadu native is now Kerala's lynchpin after moving to Kochi for the sake of job two-and-a-half years ago. Vinith would be keener than all his teammates to beat the home team because the universal hasn't yet won a national title with his adopted state.

Nazer also knows the pain of losing far too well. He was the coach when Kerala went down to Tamil Nadu in the final of the 2010 nationals here after taking a two-set lead. The amiable man ended up in the losing side in last year's final as well, against Railways. No one is hungrier than him for the title in the 65th championship. "I have had enough of near misses. It's time to go all the way," he said, even as his face radiated serenity.

Vinith has become a marked man here after his exploits in the first four matches of his team. If Tamil Nadu come up with a plan to bottle him, what would Kerala do? "I will reveal the answers on the court on Thursday," Nazer said.

Tamil Nadu coach P. Sundaram is well aware of the threat posed by Vinith. "He has been outstanding here and we have to stop him at any cost. I want my servers to disturb Kerala's reception so that we can put up triple blocks to counter Vinith. We will go all-out tomorrow. If we can't take risks in the semi-final, where can we?" he said.

Sundaram is pleased by his team's gradual improvement in the tournament. "We are peaking at the right time."

Setter Utkrapandian was back to his best in the quarterfinal. If he continues in the same vein, we will have the upper hand against Kerala," he said. His Kerala counterpart also singled out Utkrapandian as the most important player for Tamil Nadu.

Sundaram's biggest worry throughout the tournament is the patchy form of his attacker M. Naveen Raja Jacob. There is no better sight in contemporary Indian volleyball than watching Naveen in full flight. But the star has been a pale shadow of his brilliant self here as a result of lack of fitness. Naveen's coach has been so poor that he hasn't been able to beat blockers from his customary counter attacking position in zone four. Champions raise their game when the odds are stacked against them. It's time for Naveen to prove that he belongs to the class.

Winith steals the thunder for Kerala

T.N. RAGHU
 CHENNAI, DEC. 28

C. Jerome Vinith defeated Tamil Nadu 20-25, 21-25, 25-22, 25-16, 20-18 in the 65th senior national volleyball championship here on Monday. Yes, volleyball is a team sport but it was Vinith's sensational smashes from the minus position that helped Kerala finish first in Group 'A'. Appropriately, the strapping all-rounder hit the knock-out punch to end the pulsating match on Boxing Day.

Vinith, a diamond unearthed from Pudukottai in Tamil Nadu, was polished under the supervision of coach S. Dakshinamoorthy at SDAT Hostel of Excellence and SRM University here. After taking up a job with BPCL in Kochi two-and-a-half years ago, he is now a glittering jewel in the group behind Services, played their third successive five-setter in the league. Unlike their previous two matches, however, the hosts set the tone against Kerala by racing ahead to a two-set lead. But then, Vinith had different ideas for the next three.

Kerala coach K. Abdul Nazer is a man of high standards indeed. "I expected more from Vinith," he said. "He was much better in the previous two games." One can only feel sorry for the team that will have the misfortune of facing Vinith's bombardment in the quarter-finals. They are likely to be Uttar Pradesh, who finished fourth in the other group.

Vinith, who was also in a class of his own in serving, is determined to prove a point here. "I haven't won the national championship with Kerala. I hope this time everything will fall in place," said the universal, who was a losing finalist last year. Fans who were at the Nehru Stadium from the beginning wouldn't have envisaged such a grand stand finish after Tamil Nadu rattled Kerala with their high-tempo game in the first two sets. After being restored to the starting six, setter M. Utkrapandian hardly put a foot wrong as he orchestrated Tamil Nadu's attack superbly.

The home team's all-rounder, K. Praveen Kumar, was excellent throughout, although he wasn't in the league of Vinith. Libero S. Aswin also gave a good account of himself as Tamil Nadu's reception improved dramatically if the hosts leave to go all the way in the tournament, tallisman M. Naveen Raja Jacob must regain at least 70 per cent of his original game. He has been a pale shadow of his stellar self here.

Railways storms into both semifinals

S.PRASANNA VENKATESAN

CHENNAI: Railways men and women entered the semifinals of the Senior National volleyball championship for the third time in a row here on Wednesday.

The men's team got past Andhra Pradesh 25-20, 25-20, 25-23, while the women downed Uttar Pradesh 25-13, 25-8, 25-17.

Tamil Nadu women were as inspired on this day as they were in the group stage, and lost 18-25, 7-25, 11-25 to Maharashtra.

Tamil Nadu's spiking was so lightweight that Maharashtra hardly found itself stretching. Until 8-2 up in the first set, Maharashtra players had their reflexes warm up, except on one occasion — C.C. Athira had to quickly go down to dig, but she wasn't in control and the ball flew out of the court, as Tamil Nadu earned only its second point.

Even when Tamil Nadu did exert itself for full-blown spikes, it struggled to pick an empty court space, or the zone where the opponent was seemingly at its most vulnerable. In contrast, Maharashtra found space with ease. It had help from Tamil Nadu players who tended to rally to the spot of action and left easy target space. This was evident when E. Aswazi spiked the ball past three Tamil Nadu blockers who had jumped with none backing up as Maharashtra went 10-2 ahead.

Also, Maharashtra used gentle taps with a fake or quick-arm action that either pulled the rival players into action early, or pushed them to act late.

At 5-36 down in the third set, Tamil Nadu's Anja Cherian's dig went back afar in its own half that even a chasing Lakshmi Priya couldn't push it back into play. It was symbolic of the match itself, that Tamil Nadu was left to chase at Maharashtra through out.

Kerala men beat Himachal Pradesh 25-14, 25-11, 25-13. G.S. Akhin was especially remarkable both in blocking and attack. He formed an effective partnership with E.G. Rajesh and C. Jerome Vinith at the net.

The Tamil Nadu men's team made the semifinals for the tenth year in succession, defeating Rajasthan in straight sets 25-20, 25-20, 25-21.

The results (quarterfinals):
Men: Railways bt Andhra Pradesh 25-20, 25-20, 25-23; Punjab bt Services 25-22, 25-18, 25-19; Kerala bt Himachal Pradesh 25-14, 25-11, 25-13; TN bt Rajasthan 25-20, 25-20, 25-21.

Women: Railways bt Uttar Pradesh 25-13, 25-8, 25-17; Andhra Pradesh bt Telangana 25-21, 25-18, 25-6; Maharashtra bt Tamil Nadu 25-18, 25-7, 25-11; Kerala bt West Bengal 25-10, 25-15, 25-17.

Semifinal line-up: Men: Railways vs Punjab; Tamil Nadu vs Kerala.

Women: Railways vs Andhra Pradesh; Maharashtra vs Kerala.

TAMIL NADU FIND THEIR FORM

Beat Rajasthan To Set Up Semifinal Clash With Kerala

Chennai: After an inconsistent display in the group stages, the Tamil Nadu players finally clicked on all fronts.

NAT'L VOLLEYBALL

The outcome was an emphatic 25-20, 25-20, 25-21 victory against Rajasthan in the quarterfinals of the senior national volleyball tournament at Nehru Indoor Stadium here on Wednesday, setting up a mouth-watering clash against Kerala in the last-four stage. Right from the first set, the hosts were dominant, giving Rajasthan very little chance to get into the game. What stood out in particular was TN's receiving and combined blocking, with the lanky duo of GR Vaishnav and N Shelton Moses starring in the latter aspect.

ON THE CHARGE: TN players celebrate after scoring a point

Going into the match, Mandeep Singh, Dilip Khoiwal and Lavmeet Katariya were the Rajasthan players to watch out for. With the exception of blocker Lavmeet, who had an outstanding game, there was little contribution from any of the players.

Another crucial factor in TN's convincing display was the serving. Till the quarters, TN had largely chosen to play it safe with the serve. Against Rajasthan, however, they decided to take risks instead of holding back and that paid rich dividends as they won a lot of easy points.

TN coach P Sundaram described his team's display as a "complete performance".

The other semifinal will see Punjab lock horns with two-time defending champions Indian Railways. In the women's event, Tamil Nadu suffered a heavy defeat at the hands of Maharashtra, going down 19-25, 8-25, 11-25.

Semi-final line-up: Men: Indian Railways vs Punjab, Tamil Nadu vs Kerala; Women: Indian Railways vs Andhra Pradesh, Maharashtra vs Kerala.
