KERALA SEE OFF GRITTY HARYANA

By NEVIN KISHORE I DC Kozhikode, Feb. 25

Reigning champions Kerala men got better than gritty Haryana, 3-0, 25-21, 25-18, 25-22, to setup a semifinal clash with Tamil Nadu in the 66th Senior National Volleyball Championship at Calicut Trade Centre stadium here on Sunday.

In the other men quarterfinal matches, Tamil Nadu saw off Andhra Pradesh, 29-27, 22-25, 25-20, 25-22, and Services defeated comeback heroes Punjab, 25-22, 25-21, 25-22, 25-16, 15-13.

In the high-energy contest, Haryana tried their best to force a win over the hosts, but Kerala players stood out in front of a packed crowd, which enjoyed a sumptuous evening at the stadium.

The day saw the first two quarterfinal teams play nerve-wrecking five-set matches and the Haryana vs Kerala match lived up to the expectations.

Haryana started superbly and Kerala were able to take the lead only twice in the first set.

While Haryana blockers shut out Kerala attacks successfully, it was Ajith Lal who surprised them with his powerful smash. However, Haryana attackers Sohan Kumar and Shubham Choudhary played with their hearts out to grab the set away from Kerala in style.

Kerala libero CK Rathesh was in outstanding form and Kerala could have easily lost the match without him. The libero made several eye-catching receptions to keep Kerala spirits high. The Blocker Rohith also excelled in the second set to help Kerala level the game.

Kerala improved their reception and blocking in the third set and this unleashed Jerome. The universal started to play his natural game and Kerala won the third set with authority. Kerala looked like to win the fourth set also with authority, but lost the momentum halfway squandering their four-point lead. Rohith, Akhin and Jerome won consecutive points at the end to make Kerala enter semifinal with style.

"It was a tense match. But our boys prevailed. Haryana attackers had a good reach and it was hard for our blockers to stop them. However, after the second set, our blockers improved and we were able to register the win," said Kerala coach Abdul Nazir.

TN banking on college boys for spike in results

ADVAITH RAJAN @ kottukode

TAMIL Nadu has always been a strong presence, along with powers like Kerala and Rajasthan, in Indian volleyball and has been a contender for silverware in national championships for several decades now. However, a look at the state's youthful squad taking part in the 66th senior nationals in Kozhikode and you will notice the wind of change blowing in the southern state's volleyball circuit these days.

After winning the national three and finishing runners-up four times in an eight-year span starting 2007, Tamil Nadu's success in the championship have stalled in the last two editions as they have failed to get past the semifinals. They have responded the setback by strong the youth blood chance. Out went senior Indian pro like M. Ulkra Panidi, M. Navan Raja Joseph, and D. Selva Prabu, who had carried Tamil Nadu on their backs for years, and in came six young-playing at the university level. And the move seems to be paying dividends. On Sunday, the young men held their nerves to overcome a spirited Andhra Pradesh 3-2, 25-25, 25-20, 25-23, 19-17 and took a berth in the semifinals. The change in philosophy was deemed necessary by the coaches, players and the state association alike. "Teams like Kerala have an upper hand because experience always matters, but our objective for this year is to at least reach the final with this new set of players," said TN chief coach P Sundaram. Of the newcomers, libero T. Sathirayan, setter V. Harinaran and blocker LAM Manoj are from SIM University, Chennai while B. Midhun Kumar came from St. Joseph College of Engineering, Chennai. MA Abhishek is from STC, Palakkad and A. Shresha Mahammed from Panimalar Engineering College.

The change is also a sign of shifting power in the domestic circuit. "Colleges are players better deal these days than many departments. They are provided free boarding, food, and education which lures plenty of youngsters," said Sundaram who is in seventh year with the state team. Assistant coach S. Jaya Prakash, who is also the coach of St. Joseph College, elaborates, "We provide good infrastructure like floodlit indoor courts — and year-round dedicated coaching high profile tournaments in an academic year while departments have to settle for less than 10, so, that is where the players are," Prakash says.

"GR Vishwanath and N. Shelton Moses are the only two players in the squad with some experience, but in a match which could have easily been worthy to be a semifinal or even a final, it was youngsters like K. Viveen Kumar with his powerful smash and Manoj with his blocks that recovered the three points we lost early in the final set and in the end, sent us through," said Sundaram.

Kerala subdues Haryana

Tamil Nadu and Services also make the semifinals

F.K. AJITH KUMAR Kozhikode

They arrived at the Calicut Trade Indoor Court to the loud applause of a full house. They hadn't dropped a set yet at the 66th senior National volleyball championship. But, if reigning champions Kerala men and their fans thought they might not be stretched for the fourth time in a row, they were proved wrong by a bunch of determined men from Haryana.

In a thriller of an opening set, the underdog played superbly to scare the host.

Kerala, however, came back strongly after dropping that set to clinch a semifinal berth by winning 30-32, 25-21, 25-18, 25-22.

The Haryana men would be disappointed that they have to go out of the tournament at the quarterfinal stage, but can take heart from the fact that they fought bravely. They also came up with some fine blocking.

Shubham excels It was very much a team effort from them but Shubham Choudhary still stood out. He spiked winners from different angles and impressed with his blocks. He was well supported by Sube Singh, Sohan Kumar, Rohit Kumar, Amit and Aman Kumar.

For Kerala, skipper C. Jerome Vineeth scored some crucial points with his powerful smashes. As did C. Ajith Lal, who was, however, also guilty of spiking too wide.

Vibin M. George, G. Akhin, A. Muthusamy, P. Rohith and A. Raheem also contributed to the champion's hard-earned victory.

Easy going
The Kerala women also played Haryana, but last year's runner-up had it much easier, as they won 25-16, 25-13, 25-14.

The men's section saw more excitement with Tamil Nadu and Services beating Andhra and Punjab respectively in five sets.

The results (quarterfinals):
Men: Kerala bt Haryana 30-32, 25-21, 25-18, 25-22; Tamil Nadu bt Andhra 29-27, 22-25, 25-20, 23-25, 19-17; Services bt Punjab 25-23, 25-21, 23-22, 22-25, 25-17; Railways bt Karnataka 25-17, 25-23, 25-18.

Women: Railways bt Karnataka 25-13, 25-14, 25-16; Kerala bt Haryana 25-16, 25-13, 25-14; Maharashtra bt Bengal 25-22, 25-17, 25-15, 25-15; Tamil Nadu bt Telangana 25-21, 25-13, 25-19.
